

Transport Forum working groups: summary of stakeholder workshops (Jan 2019)

Activity 1: What do you want from a Transport Strategy for the South East?	Activity 2: What should the strategic objective priorities for the Transport Strategy?	Activity 3: What are the issues which could prevent the priorities from being achieved?	Activity 4: How can the Transport Strategy help deliver the priorities?	Activity 5: A good transport strategy will be...
A focus on sustainable transport solutions Improved integration between planning and transport infrastructure decision-making Support in tackling social inequality A clear, compelling case for delivery Long-term strategic planning and investment	General consensus that sustainable travel solutions should be encouraged Transport has a key role to play in tackling social inequality Integration needs to be improved across the transport system A co-ordination/ influencing role was identified for TfSE sitting between national and local policy makers Recognition that the Strategy needs to be evidence-based	Political priorities/ buy-in and the wider national policy context Funding availability and certainty Lack of integration/co-ordination between planning and transport policy Existing infrastructure doesn't allow full benefits of technology to be realized The need to balance strategic and local interests	Encouraging collaboration and co-ordination Integration of participants in transport planning and delivery Accommodating future economic, social and environmental challenges Be aspirational, but deliverable Recognising the importance of first mile / last mile connections	A framework for sustainable, integrated public transport. Influential and successful in securing inward investment. Measurable in terms of enhanced economic growth Evidence-based. Outward-looking, ambitious and deliverable.